Whether or not this campus contracts security personnel, California Healing Arts College encourages both its employees and students to report suspected criminal activity or other emergencies immediately to the nearest available school official and, in the event of an emergency, to contact local law enforcement or other emergency response agencies directly by dialing "911".

Only students, employees, and other parties having business with this institution should be on institutional property. Other individuals on institutional property at any time without the express permission of the appropriate institutional official(s) shall be viewed as trespassing and, as such, may be subject to a fine and/or arrest. Additionally, students and employees present on institutional property during periods of non-operation without the express permission of the appropriate institutional official(s) also shall be viewed as trespassing and also may be subject to a fine and/or arrest. Though this institution does not offer regularly scheduled crime awareness and prevention programs, students are encouraged to exercise proper care in seeing to their own personal safety and the safety of others.

This institution does not permit the sale, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverages on school property and adheres to and enforces all state underage-drinking laws. Additionally, this institution does not permit the possession, use, or sale of illegal drugs by its employees or students and adheres to and enforces all state and federal drug laws. Violation of any of these policies by students or staff may result in expulsion/termination and/or arrest. Information concerning drug and alcohol abuse education programs is posted on campus and distributed to students and staff.
