

Student Rights & Responsibilities

A STUDENT HAS THE RIGHT TO KNOW:

- What financial aid is available at California Healing Arts College (“CHAC”), including information on all federal and state financial aid programs.
- The deadlines for submitting applications for each of the financial aid programs available.
- The cost of attending the programs, including the school's refund policy.
- The criteria used by CHAC to select students who qualify for financial aid.
- How CHAC determines your financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition, fees, books, and living expenses are considered in your budget.
- The resources (outside scholarships and other financial aid, etc.) that are considered in the calculation of your financial need.
- The amount of your financial need that has been met, as determined by CHAC in compliance with federal and state regulations.
- An explanation of the various programs in your student aid package. If you believe you have been treated unfairly, you may request reconsideration of the financial aid award that was made to you.
- What portion of the financial aid you received must be repaid, and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, you have the right to know what the interest rate is, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time you have to repay the loan and when the repayment is to begin.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS A STUDENT:

- Review all information about the school's program before you enroll.
- Complete all application forms accurately and in a timely manner.

- Provide all additional information, verification, corrections and/or new information requested by the CHAC Financial Aid Office, your state financial aid authority, or the agency to which you submitted your FAFSA form.
